Many families take their children for trips. They usually travel for a few days or weeks during school breaks. But Julie and Tim Rivenbark are different. They have planned a much 1 (long) holiday with their two children—the family is on a one-year trip around the world. They think about visiting thirty countries 2 (total).

“We have been to Europe and 3 (south) Africa already. Now we are working our way through Asia. So we have been to a lot of big cities, 4 (include) Dubai, Rome and Bangkok,” Ms Rivenbark said. The family have wonderful experiences along the way. They have spent time flying in hot air balloons (气球) in Myanmar, and 5 (count) stars on the Everest Base Camp in Nepal, etc. They have ridden on different animals as well.

Among those 6 (interest) experiences, what impressed (使……印象深刻) them most is meeting new people. “People are friendly and welcoming. So far we 7 (make) many new friends,” said Mr Rivenbark.

It took the family a year 8 (search) for information and prepare for the trip. They cleared out all of the things they didn't need and sold their house and car. Ms Rivenbark says this kind of life 9 (be) quite enjoyable.

“I want my children to have a wonderful childhood. I hope these sweet memories (回忆) 10 (become) one of the most important parts in their life,” Ms Rivenbark said.
