introduction

Purpose and background

This document aims to provide a summary of the new vocabulary introduced in lesson 5 of the English course. It is designed to assist learners in grasping and retaining the new words effectively.

The background of this summary lies in the recognition that vocabulary acquisition is a crucial aspect of language learning and can greatly enhance learners' ability to communicate effectively in English.

The importance of vocabulary summarization

Summarizing new vocabulary is essential for language learners to efficiently扩大词汇量 and improve their communication skills.
