

You may have to wait a few seconds for the audio to load and play.

REPLAY

CONTINUE

Now get ready to answer
the question

REPLAY

CONTINUE

What do the speakers mainly discuss?

- To discuss recent innovations in laboratory equipment
- How the woman can keep up in her academic studies
- The woman's adjustment to life at the university
- The woman's decision to transfer to another university

Why does the woman mention her hometown?

- To draw a contrast to her current situation
- To acknowledge that she is accustomed to living in big cities
- To indicate that she has known some people on campus for a long time
- To emphasize her previous success in academic studies

What does the woman imply about the incident that occurred in her sociology class?

- She was embarrassed because she gave an incorrect answer.
- She was upset because the professor seemed to ignore her.
- She was confused by the organization of the professor's lecture.
- She was surprised by the comments of the other students.

According to the counselor, why should the woman visit her professor's office?

Click on 2 answers.

- To offer a compliment
- To offer to help other students
- To introduce herself
- To suggest ways of making the class more personal

以上内容仅为本文档的试下载部分，为可阅读页数的一半内容。如要下载或阅读全文，请访问：<https://d.book118.com/068117116034006123>