Introduction and analysis

Because this film was formed by 10 different love stories, so I am going to introduce and analyze some important ones. The first one is a man fell in love with his friend's bride. He recorded a record to keep the bride's smile.

Finally, he showed his love to her and talked to himself that that's enough. In this film, I like him most. He is lonely all the time, but he is still very rosy. His love is selfless. Even he loved his friend's bride, he helped him on his wedding.

现在我只想向你表白

我并没有任何期望

对我来说，你完美

我的爱特别霸道

The bride is also a good girl. She kissed him after he showed his love. I think she wants to thank him and his love. They love each other, but their love is different. His is love between man and woman. Her is love between friends.

The second is a little boy fell in love with a girl. With his stepfather's encourage, he came to say goodbye to that girl. I think his love is so pure. It makes me think about my childhood. When you have good feelings about someone, you want to do everything to attract his or her attention but also afraid of rejection.

This two people makes me feel that they are destined. Because they spook different languages. The funny thing is they always talked the same thing in their own language. When you are really in love with someone, nothing can stop you. I believe we will meet our destined person even we don't know what they're talking.

This woman found a necklace in her husband's pocket, but that's not for her. She cried but keep smile to her husband and her children. Finally, her tolerant woke up her husband. I appreciate this woman, she loves her family so she choose to forgive. I believe every mother is great like her.

This man is the new prime minister of Britain. He fell in love with a single mother. For his position, he have to keep it deep in mind. At the Christmas Eve, he followed his heart to find her. I believe their love will be very difficult but it's also very strong. As long as they love each other, nothing can be their problem.

This one is a little different. It's love between a singer and his honor. He is already out of season, but he loves his honor and applaud, so he tried his best to be popular again. I think it's reasonable. Someone needs spiritual love, someone needs material love. All kinds of love are true love.
