Friends are Angles

On my first day of high school, I saw a boy from my class walking back home after school. We are walking in the same directions. His name was David. He was carrying his books. We didn't greet each other at first. Suddenly I saw a group of kids running toward him, knocking him down and all his books got out of his arms. And then they ran away.

David sat there, not knowing what to do, because his glasses went flying when he fell. He looked up and I saw sadness in his eyes. I helped him to look for his glasses

Then I saw there was a big smile that showed real thankfulness on his face.

From then on we became good friends. The more I got to know David, the more I liked him. Over the next four years, we always studied, played together and had a happy time.

On graduation day, I could see that he was nervous about his speech. So I said, you will be the Then he began, thank those who helped you succeed through those difficult years, our parents, our teachers, but mostly our friends. Being a friend to someone is the best gift you Fu Yuanhui is an Olympic swimmer. She is 20 years old and from the Chinese city of Hangzhou.

She competed in the 100-meter backstroke event this week in Rio de Janeiro. She finished third in her semifinal swim on August 7. Shortly after the semi-finals, Fu became a hot topic on Chinese social medias.

A short time later, she became a popular topic around the world.

It was not her swimming, however, that made her famous. It was some of the words and expressions she gave afterward.

A Chinese reporter spoke with Fu after the semi-finals. The reporter told her that she swam the race in under 59 seconds.

Her shock, joy and honesty won her many friends in China and around the world. People began making GIFs of her excited facial expressions. Those images spread quickly.

God puts dreams in our hearts. So, we must dream. We lose our sorrows and heartaches in dreams. Now, here's my personal dream story: Eight years ago, a young couple very dear to my heart had a miscarriage (流产) after being attacked by armed robbers in their home. They were newly married. They share the kind of love that makes one want to give love a second chance. Why? They truly love each other and. They take God on board with them in all that they do.

Since the couple had that miscarriage, they felt empty. For a while, they wondered if God had left them. They prayed and cried. They isolated themselves from family and friends. They left their home, and travelled far and wide, spending all their savings.

One day, I called them to say hello. The wife sounded like God that led me to make that phone call. It was time to share my one dream with her.

were always nursing a child while rocking him/her in a rocking chair. In the dream, there was always a celebration happening... like a Christening□□□□, and you were in it, with life lessons with her. I also had to remind her that she must never allow her faith to be shaken. Instead, it should be renewed with each sunrise because God is Hope.

I read somewhere that when Life breaks us, are only apart.

I shared this dream with my mother. And each time, we got excited together and submitted (奉上) this dream of mine to God in prayers and in songs of praise, after all, God is just a prayer away. And God surely to be praised.

I do know one thing for sure: Dreams really do come true when you believe in your dreams. When you give God something to work with (doing your part), and when you believe in and trust God.

God finally awarded me the dream of my heart. This winter, this man and wife are expecting their first child. When I received this great news, I was not surprised. The power of God is immeasurable. I am always in total submission to His Will. I believed this dream was going to come true at God's own time. And, this is God's time. For this, I am most thankful and humbled by this amazing blessing.

53. What does the underlined word probably mean?

- A. Kept up.
