Many people say that they are working too many hours. They don't have enough time to relax or to stay with their family.

Work hours are different from one country to another. In France, people spend about 1,646 hours a year at work. In Japan, however, people work about 2,159 hours a year. That means a Japanese worker works 513 more hours a year than a French worker.

Why do people work so many hours? Some people work extra hours because they want to make more money. However, many companies don't pay overtimes. Their workers don't get more money for more work. Some people think it's their duty to work more hours. Some are afraid of losing their jobs if they don't work more hours.

Many people say that their vacations are too short. In France, people get five weeks of paid vacation a year. In Germany, they get four to six weeks, and in the United States, two weeks. One study shows fewer than half of workers used all their vacation days. In Great Britain, there is a saying, "All work and no play makes Jack a dull (迟钝的) boy." If that is true, there must be a lot of dull people in the world.

38. A Japanese worker works _____ more hours a year than a French one.

- B. Many people say they have enough time to relax.
- C. Not all companies pay their workers for more work.
- D. More than half of workers use all their vacation days.

【D】

In the cave (山洞), I saw gold coins (金币) in a corner (角落). They were Flint's treasure! We had come so far to find this. Already it had cost the lives of seventeen men from the Hispaniola. And how many others? How many ships had gone to the bottom of the sea? How many brave men had been killed for this? Perhaps no man alive could tell.

Next morning, we moved all the gold to the beach. Then we took it by boat to the Hispaniola. It was a big job for so small a number of men.

Then at last, one sunny morning, we sailed out of North Inlet and towards the nearest port (港口) in Spanish America before afternoon. Treasure Island had disappeared (消失) from view, and I had never felt happier to leave a place behind.

The sun was going down when we sailed into the port, and the doctor and Mr. Trelawney took me to the beach. When we came back, Ben Gunn was waiting for us.

“Silver has gone,” he told us, “but not empty-handed. He’s taken one of the bags of coins, perhaps worth three or four hundred guineas.” I think we were all pleased to lose the bad man at so small a price.

We found some sailors for the ship at the port, and they had a good journey home. Only five of the men who had sailed from Bristol with the Hispaniola returned with her. We all took a large piece of the treasure. Some used it wisely, but some did not.

Captain Smollett no longer goes to sea. Gray saved his money and now is a half-owner and captain of a fine ship. Ben Gunn got a thousand pounds which he spent or lost in three weeks, then he came begging and was given a job as a gatekeeper (看门人).

For Silver, we have heard no more. That scary (可怕的) sea man with one leg has gone out of my life. I will never return to Treasure Island, but in my worst dreams I still hear the sharp, high cries of Captain Flint: “Pieces of eight! Pieces of eight!”

—Extracted from Treasure Island

42. What do you know from Paragraph 1?

- A. Many people lost their lives for the treasure. B. There were so many gold coins in the ships.
C. Seventeen people left the island on the ship. D. Only the writer found gold coins in the cave.

43. Who became a gatekeeper in the end?

- A. Trelawney. B. Silver. C. Ben Gunn. D. Smollett.

44. Which is the right order of the story?

- a. We sailed into the port.
b. We sailed out of North Inlet.
c. We moved all the gold to the beach.
d. We took it by boat to the Hispaniola.

- A. c-b-d-a B. c-d-b-a C. b-a-d-c D. b-d-a-c

45. What does the passage mainly talk about?

- A. A story about living on an island. B. A story about looking for treasure.
C. A story about taking a relaxing trip. D. A story about finding different jobs.
