27. (10 分) Digital citizens (数字公民) can use technology to communicate with others online and know how to use the Internet in a safe and responsible way. Are you a good digital citizen? Here are some ways to be safe and responsible online.

Stay safe

To stay safe, never give your personal information online, such as your full name, address, phone number, e-mail address or the name of your school. Make sure that you create strong, secure passwords (安全密码) and keep them secret. Don't tell your friends your passwords.

Show respect

Just like in real life, it's important to behave well online. For example, if you want to post a photo of someone, make sure you ask for their permission (允许) first. Remember that everybody can have their own opinion. It's OK to disagree, but always be polite!

Be kind

Before you post a comment (评论) online, stop and think. Is it good? How will your words make someone feel? Don't say something online that you wouldn't say in real life. Never send unkind messages.

If you see that someone's being bullied (欺凌) online, tell a parent, teacher or another adult.

Be careful

Don't believe in everyone or everything online. Remember that people online are not always who they say they are. Never open e-mails from strangers, click on strange links or download apps without asking an adult. They could contain viruses (病毒). If you're not sure, ask your parents or teacher!
