作文参考

We met at our school yesterday morning. We were going to plant trees on the hills behind our school.

After we got there, Mr Ye, our teacher, showed us how to plant the trees.

He dug a hole in the ground and put a tree into it. Then he covered the roots with earth and watered it.

Later we planted trees ourselves. It was not an easy job, but we did our best. We were all happy to do something for our home town.
