二、 阅读理解：根据文章内容，完成选择题。（共50分）

Lilian Hanson, a college student, expects to graduate in about two years. What makes Mrs. Hanson different from her classmates is her age—73 years. She has been studying at college, a few courses at a time, for 27 years.

When Lilian Hanson graduated from high school, she went to the bank to borrow money for the further education. The banker gave her no encouragement. He didn't think that a country girl should borrow money to go to college. He thought she should be at home doing work in the house or around the farm. So Lilian Hanson went home and raised a family of nine children instead of going to college. Mrs. Hanson never forgot her dream of getting a higher education. When her children were grown, she tried again.

She finds the hardest part of going back to school at her age is to sit in class for long periods of time. Because she is not as quick as she used to be, Mrs. Hanson often gets up and walks around classes to keep from getting stiff (僵硬). At the beginning of a course in using the computer, the other students all stood up to give her a warm welcome when she introduced herself and explained why she was there and what her aims were.

操作提示：通过题目后的下拉选项框选择正确答案。

1. Mrs. Hanson couldn't go to college immediately after she graduated from high school because()

A. she hadn't got enough money

B. she was a country girl

C. the banker ordered her not to borrow money

2. Mrs. Hanson wanted to borrow money from the bank()

A. to support her family

B. because she was 73 years old

C. to further her education at college

3. In the college, what makes Mrs. Hanson different from her classmates is()

A. the fact that she is poor

B. that she has a family of nine children

C. that she is 73 years old

4. The computer students welcome Mrs. Hanson warmly because()

- A. she had got an excellent result in the exam
- B. she was good at telling funny stories
- C. they were deeply moved by her spirit

5. Mrs. Hanson is the sort of person who ()

- A. cares for study very much
- B. likes to borrow money from the bank
- C. tries to save money for her family.

A Speech about My Hometown

My lovelyhometown islocated on the south shore of anland.It's a small town with only about 9,000 people and an area of about 3.8 square miles.

First,Iwant to talkabout the people in the neighborhood. Generally speaking, people are very nice here, especially in summer. I feel that in summer everyone is in a great mood, and very generous. For example, one summer afternoon, I was at the gas station filling up my car and was short of money. Generously an old gentleman gave me the money to pay the gas attendant. That's the type of people you can expect from my hometown.

The greatest part about the town, in my opinion, is the location. The Great Bay is five minutes away from my house and it's fantastic. Another great thing is how close everybody lives to each other. Withitbeing such a small town, allmy friendslivefiveminutes away, which is a great advantage to me and everyone else. Lastly, the nightlife is great. On any Saturday night every bar is packed with people, so there's always something going on.

So far I've explained the good side of my hometown, but there are also some boring things about it. It is great in summer, but it is a different story in winter. When winter comes around town turns intoa "ghost town". This is because there is nowhere to go. The only thing we have is a shopping center, It would be nice if we had a few more options to choose from.

操作提示：正确选T，错误选F。

1. My lovely hometown is located on the north shore of an island. (F)

2. Once Iwas at the gas stationfillingup my car and didn't have enough money with me. (T)

3. I don't think it a great advantage that all my friends live five minutes away. (F)

4. On any Saturday night every bar is full of people. (T)

5. When winter comes around, we still have many options to choose from. (F)

My Volunteer Experience at the Youth Services Center Library

My experience at the library included ~~used~~ sting kids during their library visit in a number of ways — reader's advisory, working with the kids during library skills sessions, and checking (out) books. Of all of these experiences, working through problems with the kids during library skills sessions ~~was~~ st rewarding. Some of the library skill sessions were on the computer and others were using print sources like newspapers and encyclopedias.

Reader's advisory for the kids was also rewarding. Through the recommendations of Jill Morrison, the YSC's head librarian, and also talking with ~~kids~~ themselves, I read quite a few young adult titles. Doing this reading and also reading other reviews of literature ~~enabled~~ st me to give the kids recommendations for books they might enjoy.

One afternoon a high school-aged girl approached ~~me~~ asking for books about college. She wanted to get all of the information that she could on college admission processes. Together using the library's webcat, we found some useful books for her. We also found some relevant websites. At the beginning of my experience at the YSC, I felt that I came away making a difference for only one person, I had succeeded. This young woman was so appreciative and enthusiastic about the information we found together that I think I met my goal.
