【答案】21. B 22. C 23. C 24. A 25. C

【原文】 Good morning! It is time for Animal World! Because of the Beijing Olympic Winter Games, Bing Dwen Dwen is popular all over the world now. Today we are going to talk about pandas.

We all know pandas are black and white. But the color is not just for looking good! A new study shows the color helps pandas hide in the wild.

Wild pandas live in the mountains and forests in West China. The panda's face and stomach are white to help it hide in snowy areas, while its arms and legs are black to help it hide in forests.

Pandas eat mainly bamboo, so they can't store enough fat to go through winter. They go out to look for food all year long. The color really helps a lot.

Thanks for your listening. See you next week!
