四、阅读理解（40 分）

17. Have you bought any second-hand things? Have you sold anything of yours to others? Any stories behind it?

After a whole week of rain, we finally had a comfortable, beautiful summer day outside. My family and I were driving to a nearby town when my daughter found a yard sale. We saw old toys and a couple of guitars. We saw huge piles of clothes and even a piece of furniture (家具) or two for sale. Best of all, we saw lots of smiling people talking, laughing, sitting and standing in the sunshine.

Seeing all of this brought back memories of my childhood. Most of my clothes back then came from yard sales. My mom was a talented yard sale shopper. I used to hate going to them until one special day when I saw that they also sold old books there. After that, I always browsed (浏览) the books until it was time to go and sometimes my mom would buy me one too. Soon a large part of my home library came from yard sale books. To me, they were more priceless than new ones.

Why do we have yard sales? We throw away our old things and we buy "new" old things. But it certainly isn't for the money. It's that yard sales bring us together. We talk and catch up with old friends and new neighbors. We connect (联系) with kindness and our love for all the old stuff (物品).

I think yard sales teach us something about life, too. We can't really own anything here, after all. All we get is to have the stuff for a period of time. Then it is time to let it go and pass it on.

|-----------|-----------|-----------|-----------|
| A. Sunny. | B. Snowy. | C. Rainy. | D. Windy. |
|-----------|-----------|-----------|-----------|

3. Which of the following things from yard sales interested the writer a lot more?

- | | |
|------------------------------|--------------------------|
| A. Clothes and furniture. | B. Old books. |
| C. Happy and smiling people. | D. Guitars and old toys. |

4. What is probably the main reason why people have yard sales?

- | | |
|--------------------------------|------------------------------|
| A. To make more money. | B. To throw away old things. |
| C. To find something valuable. | D. To connect with others. |

5. What is the writer's opinion about belongings?

A. We can own things forever.

B. We should keep everything we buy.

C. We need to let things go and pass them on.

D. We'd better forget the past and face forward.

18、Strawberries look nice, but a light pressure can make them out of shape. Nowadays, there are many young people who are just like strawberries. They easily break down when they face difficulties. They don't know what to do when they are in trouble. They have a common name—strawberry kids.

Why are many students so easy to break down? Parents and schools are a main reason. Parents do almost everything for them in their daily life, while schools care more about their grades instead of developing their personality (个性).

Liu Yue, 13, is from Fujian. His mom hardly criticizes (批评) him and he always feels good about himself. When a teacher criticized him strictly, he felt surprised and sad. He began to doubt his ability.

Students should do something to make themselves mentally (心理上) strong. An expert said, "When you are in trouble, don't ask for help too quickly. You should try to deal with problems first by yourself. I also advise you to take an active part in sports and social activities. That can make you mentally strong."

Growing up is not just a happy process. Pains also go along with it. The most important thing is to face the pains bravely and learn from them.

1. Why are some students called "strawberry kids"?

A. Because they all like to eat strawberries.

B. Because a light pressure can make them out of shape.

C. Because they easily break down when they face difficulties.

D. Because they plant strawberries when they are in trouble.

2. Which is a main reason of becoming strawberry kids?

A. Teachers criticize them strictly.

B. Schools develop their personality.

C. Kids care more about their own grades.

D. Parents do almost everything for them.

3. How did Liu Yue feel when his teacher was strict with him?

A. Surprised and sad.

B. Angry and worried.

C. Nervous and afraid.

D. Happy and hard-working.

4. According to the 4th paragraph, what shouldn't the students do when they are in trouble?

A. Try to deal with problems first by themselves.

B. Join the basketball club.

C. Help clean up the city parks.

D. Ask for help too quickly.

5. What does the writer advise students to do in the face of pains?

A. Doubt their abilities.

B. Face the pains bravely.

C. Keep away from the pains.

D. Learn from the strawberry kids.
