4. (2024·福建三明·三模) 4 Summer Jobs to Get Paid and Take a Break

Camp counsellor (辅导员)

Most kids head off to camp during the summertime, and if you're past the typical age of being a camper, relive your youth by becoming a summer camp counsellor. You can enjoy participating in activities, planning events, and partaking in arts and crafts. It's one of the best summer jobs because it also builds your leadership skills while you earn extra money. Depending on your schedule, you can work to fit your needs. The average starting pay is $10.5 an hour.

Lifeguard

Spending time on the water is something many people do during the summer. And if you're good at swimming, then being a lifeguard is a great option for you. The hours are flexible, and the pay is great, with the average hourly rate at $11.50.

Amusement park employee

An amusement park is a great place to work during the summertime. There are a variety of positions you can get hired for — from ride operator to food service to booth tender — and the average starting pay is $10 an hour. The hours are flexible and negotiable depending on where you decide to work: the larger the park, the more employees they'll have, which could mean fewer hours they'll need you to cover.

Dog walker

If you're looking for a relaxing job, being a dog walker could be the right choice for you. Dog walking hours and pay are easily negotiable, as you can simply discuss with the dog's owner what your availability is, when they need you, and what your pay rate is. Getting some exercise with a furry friend will feel more like a relaxing pastime than a job. And if you wish to continue being a dog walker, it's the job that's easiest to keep year-round.

- 10. What is the benefit of being a camp counsellor?
 - A. It brings back the glory.
 - B. It boosts artistic creativity.
 - C. It is easy to do and well-paid.
 - D. It develops competence in leadership.
- 11. For which job can the pay be negotiated?
 - A. Camp counselor.
 - B. Lifeguard.
 - C. Amusement park employee.
 - D. Dog walker.
- 12. What do the four summer jobs have in common?
 - A. They need full-time employees.
 - B. The working hours are flexible.
 - C. The pay remains unclear.
 - D. They need relevant certificates.

5. (2024·福建莆田·模拟预测) Be a Beekeeper for a Day!

Learn about the fascinating world of honey bees in a way that few get to experience:

Your tour, led by a professional beekeeper, will include suiting up in protective gear, lighting a bee smoker, and getting up close with more than 100,000 bees.

Each tour is capped at 12 people, providing you an intimate experience of this fascinating species.

Guided tours include protective gear and select drinks.

At least one paid adult must accompany any children under the age of 18.

Price	Starting at $35 Adult (Ages 13+): $50 Child (Ages 6-12): $35
Time	Saturdays
Duration	1.5 Hours
Place	Two Hives Honey Ranch

Things to know:

Ensure you arrive a few minutes before your start time to sign waivers (豁免协议) and get signed in. Particularly for evening tours, it is important that we start on time so that we finish the tour before sunset.

Tours are weather dependent, so if the forecast calls for rain, please watch your email 24-48 hours before in case we need to cancel/reschedule.

What to bring:

We will have a variety of protective gear (beekeeping masks, gloves) for all of you. You will see that the bees are incredibly gentle and tame, but it’s better for everyone to enjoy their time and not feel worried about getting stung! Additionally, please adhere (遵守) to the below guidelines:

Closed-toe shoes that cover the ankle are required.

Wear long pants and a long sleeve top. Blue jeans are fine. Try to stick to lighter colors on top — button downs work great!

Choose clothing that is loose fitting — nothing especially tight! (Black yoga pants are NOT a good clothing choice.)

Avoid using materials that are hairy or made from sweater type materials.

Please avoid using any perfumes or heavily fragrant creams — the bees are not fans of our smells.

Finally, your tour guide may make his/her job look easy, but they work hard to ensure your bee experience is informative, fun, and most importantly, safe. If you enjoyed your time and the experience, a tip to show your appreciation for their work is not required but always appreciated.

13. What is provided for the trip?

- A. A cap.
- B. A raincoat.
- C. A beekeeping mask.
- D. A pair of knee-high boots.

14. What are tourists advised to do?

- A. Put on a sweater.
- B. Wear tight clothes.
- C. Choose black yoga pants.
- D. Give a tip to the guide.

Which fruit personality are you?
	In the workplace, we have to be able to deal with people who aren’t like us. No one will change for you, so you just have to respect their differences. When identifying personality types, I like to talk in terms of fruit. Nobody is just one fruit, but we all have a preference. And we tend to emphasize our top two, especially under pressure. Here are some fruit personalities and how best to deal with them.
Types	Introduction & Management
Apple:Hard Core	Apple types are direct and don’t suffer fools. They are fast, logical thinkers who love to win and hate to lose control. They’ll get a result at any cost, but see conflict as sport.	1. Always stand up to them.
		2. Get to the point.

		3. Don't take it personally.
		4. Watch and learn from them.
Mango: Juicy and Messy	Mango types love life and can't afford to miss a minute. They love variety because they tend to be easily distracted and naturally rule breakers.	1. Talk big picture, avoid details.
		2. Give them false deadlines.
		3. Don't micro-manage.
Lemon: Concentrated	Lemon types love structure and order. They are worriers who like security and predictability. They excel at spotting gaps in a plan. But too many rules can also be frustrating.	1. Respect their need for space.
		2. Don't surprise them.
		3. Listen with respect.
		4. Show your pace.
Banana: Sweet and Gentle	Banana types enjoy peace and shy away from conflicts. They are kind to react to others' requests. However, when they are too accommodating, they can be seen as indecisive.	1. Don't pressure them, motivate.
		2. Create a positive environment.
		3. Encourage regular feedback.
		4. Be nice to them.

15. What do people of Mango and Lemon personalities have in common?

- A. They both prefer private space and specific deadlines.
- B. They both dislike being restricted by excessive rules.
- C. They both serve as good ice-breakers of the workplace.
- D. They both need regular feedback and being motivated.

16. Who probably favors the Banana Personality?

- A. Jack, an innovative thinker who is willing to face challenges.
- B. Adam, a brilliant planner who always sticks to his daily routines.
- C. Nancy, a patient worker who prioritizes harmonious relationships.
- D. Robin, an open-minded leader who advocates the value of diversity.

1. (2024·湖南怀化·三模) Alien Clay by Adrian Tchaikovsky

On the distant world of Kiln lie the ruins of an alien civilization. A great mystery awaits humans: who were the builders and where are they now? These questions become real for Professor Arton Daghddev, exiled (流放) from Earth to Kiln's off-world labour camp due to his mistake. Facing the planet's dangerous ecosystem, Arton fights for survival.

Stories of Your Life and Others by Ted Chiang

A sci-fi classic in a brand-new edition. From a high Babylonian tower that connects a flat Earth to the sky above, to an alien language that challenges our very sense of time and reality, Chiang's unique imagination invites readers to question their understanding of the universe and their place in it.

War Bodies by Neal Asher

In a world ruled by robots, the Cyberat face a rebellion (叛乱) when the human Polity arrives. Piper, raised as a weapon, seeks help from the Polity after his parents are caught by enemies. As war worsens, Piper must face the puzzling technology implanted in his own body. It could either end their fight or cause serious consequences. The future of civilization hangs in the balance as the battle unfolds.

In the Lives of Puppets by TJ Klune

In a strange little home built into the branches of a forest live three robots. Vic Lawson, a human, lives there too. The day Vic repairs an unfamiliar android labelled "HAP", he learns of a shared criminal past between the robots — a past spent in hunting humans. The robots, once hidden and safe, are now exposed.

1. Who is the text probably intended for?

- A. Book reviewers.

Rewards at West Exe School

West Exe School is a fully inclusive comprehensive secondary school. Listed below are the ways the school celebrate success with students, parents and staff during the academic year.

Merit Badges

Merit badges are awarded in line with the student qualities. E.g., when a student reaches 200 merits in a semester for being kind, they receive their kind merit badge. The West Exe shield is awarded to students who have achieved all six merit badges.

The Golden Ticket

Every two weeks, all members of staff have a 'Golden Ticket' which they can award to any student who has displayed what the student qualities stand for. There will be a bi-weekly focus on one of the student qualities as positive reinforcement. The golden tickets awarded are then placed in a prize draw, for prizes suggested by the student body.

Punctuality Award

Students who are on time for every lesson across the week will be entered into a prize draw. This is to promote the importance of punctuality in school and in life.

Headteacher Reward

Headteacher's Reward is given to students who have been nominated (提名) by staff members every month for demonstrating the qualities, behaviors and values of what it means to be an exceptional West Exe Student. They are also awarded to students who have shown exceptional achievement, either in school or as part of an extracurricular activity. This includes a certificate and pen, with a letter going home to parents to share news of the young person's achievement.

2. Where is the text probably taken from?

- A. A school website.
- B. A news report.
- C. A travel leaflet.
- D. A book review.

3. (2024·河北秦皇岛·三模) Shrewsbury is an ideal getaway with visitors.

Shrewsbury eBike Hire

BEST FOR: SEEING THE SIGHTS AT A GENTLE PACE

Set off on a self-guided tour of Shrewsbury on one of the town's new e-bikes. The route is easy to follow with lots of stops along the way, including the Welsh Bridge, Shrewsbury Museum & Art Gallery and the Victorian-era Shrewsbury Prison. It's most suitable for ages 14-plus.

Shrewsbury Flaxmill Maltings

BEST FOR: INSPIRING ARCHITECTS

This was the world's first iron-shaped building when it was built in 1797—a forerunner of the modern skyscraper (摩天大楼). A new visitor centre opened in September—it's also the end point of the Heritage Trail e-bike tour. An exhibition explores how the building has grown and been repurposed over the years.

Shrewsbury Market Hall

BEST FOR: FOOD AND SHOPPING

Situated in the centre of town, this was an innovative example of modern architecture when it opened in 1965. Recent upgrades mean it's now home to more than 70 independent businesses, including traditional market stands, artisan producers, craft shops and antique dealers.

Riverside Cabins

BEST FOR: QUIET STAYS

Opened in 2020, Riverside Cabins is a rural collection of wooden cottages built in 18th century, a 20-minute drive from Shrewsbury. Cabins sleep between two and six guests and each come with their own hot baths, as well as Wi-Fi and smart TVs. Try your hand at boating along the river, with equipment available to borrow on site. From £ 135 for a minimum of two nights for a family of four.

3. Shrewsbury is made an attraction probably because of its _____.

- A. history B. food C. transport D. fashion

4. (2024·河北·模拟预测) With an average of 266 sunny days every year, 17 miles of world-class beaches, and adventures on tap year-round, San Diego is an ideal place for families to explore.

Wander around at the San Diego Zoo

The world-famous San Diego Zoo completely transformed its Children's Zoo into the Wildlife Explorers' Basecamp in 2022. It now features a treehouse-style activity area, a kid-sized animal cave, and a big splash pad (喷水池). Plenty of bathrooms and changing areas make it convenient to get wet, dry off, and keep exploring.

Watch sensory-friendly IMAX films

Fleet Science Center in Balboa Park provides a hands-on approach to Science, presenting exhibits that explore themes like light, electricity, and the universe. In Studio X, a maker space, kids can design and construct projects like a wind-powered car, marble maze(大理石迷宫), or perhaps a lunar lander. On Accessibility Mornings every third Saturday of the month, families with sensory sensitivities can enter the museum an hour earlier and attend an IMAX showing with lower sound volume and brighter lighting.

Sail through the air at Torrey Pines Glider port

Thrill-seeking families can jump off a cliff(悬崖) and ride the wind over the beach with Torrey Pines Glider port. Get a rush on a ride with a trained professional or take a lesson to learn the art of solo paragliding(滑翔伞) over sandstone cliffs. The glider port is open seven days a week, weather permitting, and it accommodates various ages and experience levels.

4. Where's the text probably from?

(23-24 高三·上海·阶段练习) Outdoor Recreation

Get outdoors with us this summer and experience the excitement and peace within our unique programs. Research suggests that being physically active within green spaces helps reduce stress, anxiety and anger, and improves moods and overall health and wellbeing. Our Department combines experiential activities for your enjoyment.

All fitness levels are welcome; we can accommodate most accessible needs. Please contact Laurie Wright at wright@utsc.utoronto.ca with any questions. Trips are offered to registered U of T students first and then if there is space to staff, non-registered students and guests of the participants. Register at recreg.utoronto.ca or in person at the TPASC Registration Desk.

Please check our website for all updated trip dates, prices, registration details and more!

Refunds are only available up to 5 business days prior to the trip.

Upcoming Adventures

TBD: Treetop Trekking and Mountain Biking

Participants will travel by bus up to the Horseshoe Valley Resort. You may choose between a 3-hour Treetop Trekking adventure or 2 hours of x-country mountain biking through the region's forest trails. Treetop Trekking involves zip-lining (moving quickly with the rider suspended from a cable) and climbing through obstacle courses in a peaceful forest setting. Both adventures will be instructor-led and all equipment will be provided. No experience necessary. Beginner to advanced courses will be available.

Tuesday, June 13th : Outdoor Rock Climbing or Hiking Trails

A bus will transport students to Milton to either hike the area or rock climb. The rock climbing will take place at Rattlesnake Point and there is an opportunity for students to challenge themselves by climbing up to 80ft on some of the best rocks in Southern Ontario. All instructors are fully certified and all equipment will be provided. A custom course will be set up to meet the needs of climbers. The hike will take place through some of the Bruce Peninsula trails and Halton Parks. Participants will have over 20kms of trails to choose from. You may hike with a group or follow the map trails with some friends.

Friday, June 30th (indefinite date): Warsaw Caves

The Warsaw Caves Conservation Area and Campground takes its name from a series of seven caves found in the park. Join us as we explore the multiple courses through the caves have a picnic lunch. Come enjoy this natural underground jungle gym.

By Jacobsen Foods

1.8 out of 5 stars 815 customer reviews

It's time to feed your family cereal that's both healthy and exciting! Healthy Charms combines both the fun of sugary cereals with the health benefits of healthy foods. After years of research, we've created this cereal that appeals to both kids and adults alike. It's made with 18 nutritious ingredients that provide your body with vitamins, minerals, and proteins to start your day off right! We've added dried fruits in fun shapes that your children will love.

Low in fat

Low in sugar

No GMO or artificial colors or ingredients

ONLINE REVIEW:

1.0 out of 5 stars Definitely tastes healthy

By parent of 4 ★★★★★ May 18, 2023

Well, I can't say I didn't try. I wanted to feed my kids something healthier for breakfast than their usual Frosted O's and Cinnareal, but this one completely failed. My kids aren't even picky, but this cereal tasted like cardboard. There was absolutely nothing fun or "charming" about it. The "shaped fruit" just looked like pressed bugs, and that was the only part of the cereal that tasted good. And it was so expensive on top of it all!

RESPONSE:

I'm sorry to hear your family did not like our cereal. We had broad feedback making this product and received lots of good reviews about it. Perhaps the transition from a lot of sugar to a product that has almost none was too quick? We want you to be happy and would be glad to send you a beneficial ticket to purchase something else our company makes. Please email us at contact@jacobsenfoods.com and tell us about your situation and we'll get into contact with you.

4. What was the company's goal when making Healthy Charms?
 - A. They wanted to be in direct competition with another cereal.
 - B. They wanted to create something that no one had ever heard of.
 - C. They wanted to make kids and parents happy at the same time.
 - D. They wanted to turn a kid's idea into reality with their help.
5. What is one complaint parent of 4 has?
 - A. The dried fruit was tasty but looked terrible.
 - B. The cereal was a little wet even without milk.
 - C. There was still a lot of sugar for children.
 - D. There was so little cereal inside the box.
6. What is the company's explanation for parent of 4's complaints?
 - A. They said the family doesn't know what they're talking about.
 - B. They said that the cereal isn't supposed to taste good.
 - C. They said that the product the family purchased was bad.
 - D. They said the family needs more time to get used to it.
