Doctor are known to be terrible pilots. They don't listen because they already know it all. I was lucky:] became a pilot in 1970, almost ten years before I graduated from medical school. I didn't realize then, but becoming a pilot makes me a better surgeon. I loved flying. As I flew bigger, faster planes, and in worse weather. I learned about crew resource management 机组资源管理，or CRM,a new idea to make flying safer. It means that crew members should listen and speak up for a good result, regardless of positions.

I first read about CRM in 1980. Not long after that, an attending doctor and I were flying in bad weather. The controller had us turn too late to get our landing ready. The attending doctor was flying; I was safety pilot He was so busy because of the bad turn, he had forgotten to put the landing gear 起落架 down. He was a better pilot - and my boss - so it felt unusual to speak up. But I had to: Our lives were in danger. I put aside myuneasiness and said, "Weneed to put the landing gear down now!" That was my first real lesson in the power of CRM, and I've used it in the operating room ever since.

CRM requires that the pilot/surgeon encourage others to speak up. It further requires that when opinions are from the opposite, the doctor doesn't overreact, which might prevent fellow doctors from voicing opinions again. So when I'm in the operating room, I ask for ideas and help from others. Sometimes they're not willing to speak up. But I hope that ifI continue to encourage them , someday someone will keep mefrom "landing gear up".

36. What does the author say about doctors in general?

A. he saved the plane by speaking up B. he was in charge of a flying task

C. his boss landed the plane too late D. his boss operated on a patient

38. In the last paragraph" landing gear up" probably means _____.

A. following flying requirements. B. overreacting to different opinions.

C. listening to what fellow doctors say D. making a mistake that may cost lives

39. Which of the following can be the best title for the text?

A. CRM: A New Way to Make Flying Safe B. Flying Makes Me a Better Doctor

C. The Making of a Good Pilot D. A Pilot-Turned Doctor

In 1947 a group of famous people from the art world headed by an Austrian conductor decided to hold an international festival of music, dance and theatre in Edinburgh. The idea was to reunite Europe after the Second World War.

At the same time, the "Fringe" appeared as a challenge to the official festival. Eight theatre groups turned up uninvited in 1947, in the beliefthat everyone should have the right to perform, and they did so in a public house disused for years.
