二、填空题(共 6 题，共 12 分)

8、 Have you ever asked your relatives or friends if there is Wi-Fi in their houses? Have you ever searched for Wi-Fi when you are at restaurants or hotels? The answers will probably be“Yes”. Most of us want Wi-Fi everywhere as if we can't live without it. But we can only use free Wi-Fi in some public places. We still have to spend some money accessing（连接）the Internet at most time. Here comes a piece of good news.

A rich, powerful organization in the USA called the Media Development Investment Fund（MDIF） has decided to change the age of online computing（计算） completely by giving free Wi-Fi to every person on Earth. They will send up hundreds of satellites into low Earth orbit（轨道） in 2015. This is because they have made a survey and found that only 60% of the world's population have been able to get information on the Internet. And this is also because many countries are unable to offer people the necessary infrastructure（基础设施） to access the web.

We can expect to use free Wi-Fi everywhere in the near future.

9、Four years ago when I was a boy of 11, I got into the biggest trouble as a kid. It was a Saturday morning. Both my parents were out, leaving me and my 10-month-old sister became alone. Anyway, my sister was still asleep in her room. In fact I had the house to myself. I decided to do some drawing. Soon I gave up. Nothing was on TV, so I felt bored and touched the candles on the shelf I had an idea!What would happen if I see fire to some kitchen paper? Well, of course it went on fire, but it wasn't the tiny flame (火箭) I'd expected, and I couldn't blow it out. I threw it on the floor, and then luckily got my dad's boots (靴子) and stamped it out.

I thought I was safe until there was a HCGE hole in my room. When my mum came home later, she smelt the smoke immediately. She dropped the shopping bag, luckily for me, over the hole. I thought this meant she would never see it. However, after running round the house checking for a fire, she of course picked up the bag and saw the hole. Next I was grounded (关禁闭) and in trouble for months. Even though, the hole was still there, reminding me of what I did.

When industries grow, pollution also grows. Today, people are more concerned about the problem of environment than they used to be. ____ We are using up our natural resources too quickly and at the same time we are polluting our environment with dangerous chemicals. ____

Nature has given us so much, but look at what we have done in return for its generosity. Thousands of trees have been cut down. ____ Priceless wildlife was turned into delicious dishes on the table. The smoke from the chimneys (烟囱) is dirtying the air. All this hurt the earth, which results in the shortage of valuable resources, air pollution and countless good lands becoming deserts, etc.

Fortunately, many countries have got to know the seriousness of the problem and take active measures to protect the environment. ____ The governments on their part also make stricter laws. They know this is not only for our own generation but also for generations to come.

It is necessary to protect our natural environment. ____
