I used to have little passion (激情) in my life. But what happened the other day changed my mind. It was then that I learned how 1 it is to have a passion in life.

That day I went home in Mom's car. When Mom 2 at a red light, someone on the side of the road caught my eye. It was a man dressed 3 rags(破旧衣服). He was homeless. That didn't interest me. 4 I had seen many people like him before. Those people usually looked unhappy and hopeless. But this man was 5 in some way. He was not sitting down with a 6 expression. Instead, he had a 7 in his hand and was dancing happily to the music. The radio seemed to be the most precious thing he had. "Mom, why does that man have a radio though he's 8?" I asked.

"He 9 it," she replied.

"But why doesn't he use the money to buy food or clothes? He 10 something that he didn't need." "Well, Sarah, sometimes food and clothes aren't the most important."

That man must care so 11 about music that he bought a radio instead of food or clothes. I soon realized that 12 is the key to life.

Since then, I am always thinking of 13 is truly important in life. A home, a meal, clothes — these things are only 14 of the life. What we often forget is that we all need a joy, a light in a 15 day. We all need a passion which gives a person the happiness they need to keep going.
