The background features a light pink rectangular frame with a thick black border. Inside this frame is a white rectangular area with a thin black border. A grid of small black squares is arranged in 8 rows and 8 columns within the white area. In the center of the white area, there is a blue triangle pointing to the right, containing the white number '1'. Below the triangle, the Chinese characters '引言' (Introduction) are written in black. To the right of the triangle, there is a blue plus sign. On the left side of the white area, there are three horizontal wavy lines in grey and black. The background outside the pink frame is white with scattered geometric shapes: teal squares, red squares, and teal diamonds.
