四、阅读理解（本题共计 4 小题，每题 5 分，共计 20 分）

18. 根据短文完成表格信息。

People in different countries behave differently at the dinner table. You must know more about the table manners, so that you'll not make some mistakes.

In China, one important thing is that you are not supposed to start eating first if there are older people at the table. You are not supposed to stick your chopsticks into your food. You shouldn't point at anyone with your chopsticks, either. There is one more thing you need to know. You're not supposed to talk when you're eating. Parents are expected to talk at the dinner table. Children are not allowed to speak.

But in France, things are very different. For example, you are not supposed to put your bread on your plate. You should put it on the table. Another example is that you are not supposed to eat anything with your hands except bread, not even fruit you have to cut it up and eat it with a fork. What's more, it's impolite to say you are full. And you are not supposed to put your elbows on the table.

(1) _____ in different countries
In China	*Don't start eating first if there are (2) _____ at the table. *Don't stick (3) _____ into food or point at anyone with them. *Don't talk when you are eating.
(4) _____	*You should put your bread (5) _____. *You should cut the fruit up and eat it with your fork instead of your hands. *You shouldn't say you are full. *You shouldn't put your elbows on the table.
