Dear Peter,

My name is Bruce. I saw your information in Sydney Teenager magazine last week, and I would like to be your pen-friend.

Let me tell you a bit about myself. I am 13 years old and I live in Sydney, Australia. You've probably heard of the city. It is the one with the large beautiful opera house. Many people think Sydney is the capital city of Australia (I used to think so, too), but the capital city is actually Canberra (堪培拉).

I'm the only child in my family, so I don't have to share a room with others. It's great. I plaster (贴满) my room with posters of my favorite band, Coldplay. What is your favorite band?

I go to Sydney Boys Middle School. As you can tell from the name, we only have boy students in our school. I do not mind that there are no girls here because we have many great games like Australian rules football. Perhaps you don't know what that is. It's like rugby (橄榄球), but it's far more exciting.

During the holiday, my dad and I like to go camping. He is really good at spotting wildlife, such as snakes, koalas and kangaroos. Christmas is one of the most important festivals here in Australia. But unlike people in many other countries, we usually celebrate Christmas on the beach because it falls in the middle of our summer. What do you do for Christmas?

Please tell me more about yourself and what you like to do when you are not in school.

Write soon.

Yours,

Bruce
