2018 满分范文

My mind glittered of the special experience with some foreign students last week, blossoming with the pride of spreading our traditional tea culture.

I was beaming with excitement greeting the friends coming from various countries. Guiding them into our school's Tea Chamber, I introduced the history of tea to them. Though nervous at first, I was delighted to see the of great interest on their faces. I moved on to introduce the different sets of tea pots whose elegant shapes and styles wowed them all.

After that, I showed them the process of making tea, completely on my own. As I carefully poured the tea into the cups, the foreign students simply couldn't hide their amazement, taking photos while fixing their eyes on the tea. The sent of the tea was so wonderful that we all smiled gladly.

Their amazement was such that they could not wait to try to make tea themselves. Step by step, I gave each of them instructions on making tea. Every one of them paid full attention, and, with great care, all of them made tea successfully. Endless smiles were painted upon their faces as they enjoyed their tea.

Though we were reluctant, the activity was wrapped up by a photo taken with everyone holding a tea up. Delighted, we smiled heartily to the camera. The foreign students could not stop expressing their appreciation and amazement of tea, and the peaceful and simple spirit in it.

I, proud of our profound culture and happy to spread it, have this experience echoing in my mind and treasured.
