Hello, my name is John. I am in Grade 7 at Woodland School near London. We learn 8 subjects at school. My favourite subject is Home Economics. In this class, we learn how to do some housework like cooking and sewing. After some classes, I know how to cook and make some clothes. Now I cook for my parents on the weekend.

Our school has a Reading Week every term. It's on the second week of the term. During the Reading Week, I can read many interesting books. My favourite books are about Chinese history. I think China is a great country. I hope I can have a Chinese class at school. My classmates and I love our Reading Week, because we can read many books from the school library. We can bring books from home to school, too, but we have to tell our teachers what we are reading. Near the end of each class, we can talk to our classmates about our books. The Reading Week is always too short because we want to read more good books.
