_____

_____

_____

_____

I expect to come to China again.

【答案】例文

Hello, my dear friends. My name is Steve. I spent a happy and meaningful time with my classmates. In our school, we should follow some rules. For example, we have to say hello to our teacher, and we should keep quiet in the library. All of the rules make us better. I also learned a lot about Chinese language and culture. I am especially interested in Chinese dragon culture. As for Chinese characters in literature, I like the Monkey King best. In a word, I have learned so much in the past three years.

I expect to come to China again.

【答案】例文

Dear Linda,

Since you were invited to spend the Spring Festival with a Chinese friend, I think there's something important you should know. Spring Festival is the most important traditional holiday in China, and it has been celebrated for thousands of years. It is a time for a family to get together. People from all over the country will travel back to their hometowns to see their families and relatives. On New Year's Eve, we usually have a big family meal and watch the Spring Festival Gala together to relax ourselves. At midnight, we set off firecrackers. The noise and the bright colors are believed to bring good luck.

When you're having this meal, it's better not to stick the chopsticks into the food and you shouldn't point at anyone with your chopsticks, either. Also you're not supposed to start eating first if there are older people at the table.

Hope you can enjoy yourself that day!

Li Ying
