第一题

Passage

The School's Garden

It was a bright,sunny afternoon in early spring.The school garden was starting to come to life after a long winter.Mrs.Johnson,the science teacher,was taking her two classes for a field trip.She had planned the visit to teach the students about nature and the importance of maintaining an ecosystem.The garden was a place where they could observe plants and animals and learn about their interactions.The children were full of energy and curiosity, eager to explore.

Mrs.Johnson pointed to a small patch of weeds that had invaded the area. “These are called invasive species,”she explained,“and they can disrupt the natural balance of a garden.”She then moved on to show them different types of flowers and explain their functions in the garden.The students were
