Joining in one of the overseas volunteer programs is a fantastic idea for high school students during vacations

Here are some popular programs.

Student exchange programs

Student exchange programs can be an excellent way for high school students to travel on a budget and promote cross-cultural understanding. These programs range in length from a couple of weeks to a full year of classes in a foreign high school. Fees vary by program, but students are often responsible for expenses like airfare and food.

World Wide Opportunities on Organic Farms

Another great option is World Wide Opportunities on Organic Farms(WWOOF). If you are interested in working on a farm, you can do that with WWOOF in exchange for free room and board. Opportunities are available in over 500 countries, and the time commitment is up to you to decide. Each country has its own set of rules regarding minimum age, but WWOOF in German, Portugal, UK, and Italy accept those under the age of 18.

Virtual Volunteering in Nepal

While the idea of virtual volunteering might not sound quite as exciting as jetting off to new destinations, the
