Commercial airlines net profit in Europe 2013-2024

3 Description: From 2013 to 2018, the net profits of commercial airlines in Europe continuously increased, reaching its peak at 9.1 billion U.S. dollars in 2018. However, in 2020, due to the coronavirus outbreak, European commercial airlines reported record net profit losses of 34.5 billion U.S. dollars. As of 2021, European airline companies experienced the first signs of improvement in their operations, and net losses started decreasing again. In 2024, the net profit is expected to reach 7.9 billion U.S. dollars. Read more
