Mr Stilwell looked out of his window. There was a boy at the other side of the street. The boy sat on the ground and took some bread out of a bag and then began eating it.

There was a very thin dog in the street. The boy said to it very kindly. "Come here, good dog. Do you want a piece of bread?"

The dog was very hungry and went to the boy, but he didn't give it any of his bread. Instead, he kicked the dog. It ran away and the boy laughed.

Then Mr Stilwell came out of his house and said to the boy, "Do you want a dollar?"

The boy was happy and said, "Yes, I do."

“Come here,” Mr Stilwell said. The boy went to Mr. Stilwell, but Mr Stilwell didn’ t give him a dollar. He hit him with a stick.

The boy cried and said, “Why did you hit me? I didn’ t ask you for any money.”

“No,” Mr. Stilwell said, “and the dog didn’ t ask you for any bread, but you kicked it.”

When you are learning English, you find it not clever to put an English sentence, word for word, into your own language. Take the sentence “How do you do?” as an example. If you look up each word in the dictionary, one by one, at what time, what is your translation? (It must be a wrong sentence in your own language. Languages do not just have different sounds, they are different in many ways. It's important to master the rules for word order) (掌握) (顺序) in the study of English, too. If the speakers put words in a wrong order, the listener can't understand the speaker's sentence easily. Sometimes when the order of words in an English sentence is changed, the meaning of the sentence changes, But sometimes the order is changed, the meaning of the sentence doesn't change. Let's see the difference between the two pairs of sentences.

“She only like apples.” “Only she likes apples.”

“My friend is Alice.” “Alice is my friend.”

When you are learning English, you must do your best to get the spirit (精神实质) of the language and use it as the English speaker does.

42. From the passage we know that when we are learning English.

- A. we shouldn' t put every word into our own language
- B. we should look up every word in the dictionary
- C. we need to put every word into our own language
- D. we must read word by word

43. The writer thinks it is in learning English.

- A. difficult to understand different sounds
- B. possible to remember the word order
- C. important to master the rules in different ways
- D. easy to master the rules for word order

44. We can learn from the passage that

- A. the meaning of an English sentence always changes with the order of the words
- B. the order of words can never change the meaning of an English sentence
- C. sometimes different order of words has a different meaning
- D. if the order of words is different, the meaning of a sentence must be different
