When I first fly to Edinburgh Middle School, I meet a lot of new classmates. Some of them beec 16 good friends later. One day, I take out a Jianzi. My friends know nothing about it 17 they ask me to show them how to kick it on the school playground. We try hard to keep the Jianzi in the 18 to get more kicks. Lots of students enjoy our Jianzi kicking. The show is so 19 and all the boys and girls say “Great”. When the Jianzi flies 20 our heads again and again, more and more students e to enjoy our game and some even ask, “Can we join you?” It really 21 us a lot.

Then, an exciting idea es to me: Why not 22 a Jianzi Club to make more people know this traditional game in China? I tell other students the 23 of Jianzi kicking as an exercise. It is good for our health and can make us strong.

My dream finally 24. I always look forward to kicking Jianzi — not 25 for fun but also to show our traditional sport. It’s nice that our Jianzi team begin just as a group of friends with same interests!
