五、阅读理解（30 分）

14、When kids are at home, the house is in a mess most of the time. But in fact, your children can learn some easy skills and they will help keep the house tidy. Here are some chores that parents should let their kids learn.

①

Kids as young as 2 years of age can start to learn to help put away clothes. School-aged kids can learn to fold clothes and start to learn about using the washing machine. If you start teaching your child at a young age, by age 10 or 11, the child will finish every step of washing clothes by himself, from putting away clothes to using a washing machine.

②

Children who are trained in a right way can be a big help with doing the dishes. Whether you are teaching your children to use a dishwasher(洗碗机) or wash the dishes by hand, the best way to start is with scraping and rinsing(刮和冲洗). Even 5-year-olds to 6-year-olds can learn how to scrape and rinse their plates. 7-year-olds to 8-year-olds can help with drying and putting away the dishes. By age 9, kids are ready to learn how to wash different kinds of dishes or use a dishwasher.

③

Learning to mop(拖) the floor is a skill for older school-aged kids. By the age of 9 or 10, most kids are old enough to learn to mop the floor without much help. Give them advice on how to mop different kinds of floors in your home.
